- 11:58:02 From Michelle Ciancio : Michelle Ciancio from Illinois
- 12:00:47 From Warren Lemke : Hi, Warren Lemke here.
- 12:04:53 From Warren Lemke : I got in really fast...
- 12:05:26 From Nicole Toyne : Nicole Toyne here
- 12:05:31 From Michelle Ciancio : I did too
- 12:07:17 From Lynn : Lynn Slate is here from CBC, High Point NC. Hello to everyone
- 12:07:23 From Deborah Doyle : Debbie Doyle checking in Ottawa, Canada
- 12:07:31 From Paul Kovolew : Paul K is here from Raleigh, NC.
- 12:07:38 From BobbiJo Bruno : Hello Lynn
- 12:18:46 From Paul Kovolew : Dr, Debra, is an assessment conducted before BIP intervention begins and after completion of treatment?
- 12:21:44 From Paul Kovolew : I hope you offer additional offender treatment courses.
- 12:28:18 From Nicole Toyne : Is that common for abusers to have those types of diagnoses? Bi Polar or Borderline?
- 12:33:28 From Paul Kovolew : I like that Dr. Debra, that is, contacting the parents of the victim to obtain their perspective and find any discrepancies. I think that very helpful = speaking as a parent who has a daughter in an abusive relationship.
- 12:47:05 From Paul Kovolew : Joy, who was the speaker at the spring conference that shared her church used a software package that had documentation from beginning to start, so that all the members of the team are on the same page? Was it Mindy?
- 12:47:30 From Joy Forrest : Paul, that was Mindy Williams
- 12:47:49 From Joy Forrest : North Wake Church in WF
- 12:48:42 From Paul Kovolew : Is that something we, maybe Jim, want to explore further as we/he works with the churches?
- 12:49:36 From Joy Forrest : Yes, for sure.. hopefully, he'll see this chat and take note. He's on vacation this week.
- 12:50:31 From Paul Kovolew : Ok - and good for him taking some time off.

12:56:14 From Paul Kovolew : During treatment, do you periodically or on a PRN basis check with the victim, if you have questions about the offender's honesty?

13:04:49 From Paul Kovolew : Since treatment providers have an obligation to report other crimes that are revealed during treatment, do you let offenders know of your obligation to report before treatment begins?

13:07:58 From Nicole Toyne : Rare to acknowledge they have done anything.

13:08:26 From BobbiJo Bruno : I told my pastor, abusers do not wear t shirts that say I abuse my wife.

13:09:12 From Deborah Doyle : can we get copies of the handouts, worksheets, workbook?

13:20:16 From jadymoses : I need to take off ladies, thank you!

13:22:46 From Deborah Doyle : this is definitely problematic in church community and requires pastors to be connected too

13:23:07 From Deborah Doyle : we run into this all the time when disciplining folks

13:30:02 From Warren Lemke : I have one external hard drive but it's getting old. Makes me think it might be time to replace!

13:32:37 From BobbiJo Bruno : Disaster. Run away !!!!

13:32:41 From Nicole Toyne : There is so much work involved, it makes so much sense why they don't stay in treatment or desire to work on themselves.

13:33:11 From Nicole Toyne : LOL, means well.

13:33:29 From BobbiJo Bruno : He is such a nice guy.

13:40:41 From Paul Kovolew : Joy, in situations where a offender decides he doesn't want to remain under the scrutiny of the church and decides to go to another church, are pastors open to notifying the pastor of the other church the circumstances/reasons why the offender is leaving?

13:45:26 From Nicole Toyne : Mine church hopped all over our valley. Mine caused trouble in one church and they never said anything. I only came aware of why we left years later, then all the pieces fell into place.
