yes, and it also sounded dumb to me as a teenager. I've processed it more as an adult and just the realization that he was trying to hurt and control me with these statements. He also, and I have this written in my journal, told me that he could break my bones if he wanted to because I was his daughter. Terrible!

12:57:48 From Audrey Whitaker : my ex had to go do some Anger management until a counselor released him. The case manager/mediator considered Celebrate Recovery good enough, such a joke. I don't think there was any actual accountability, just him telling his victim story and then getting himself on security duty because of his hero/victim mentality.
