Coercive Control Victim Advocacy

Debra Wingfield, Ed.D.

Course Description

Society is significantly impacted by domestic violence and coercive control. Over time, various resources for victim services developed to assist victims in moving forward with their lives. Resources available for victims and interactive involvement with victim advocates are an important aspect of containing domestic violence and coercive control. Local, state, national and international resources are reviewed along with related legislation. Information on how to approach pastors and other church leaders is provided.

PROVERBS

“Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counselors, they are established” (Proverbs 15:22).

Proverbs 11:14 and 24:6 also mention the value of a “multitude of counselors” or having “many advisers.”

"As for these four youths, God gave them learning and skill in all literature and wisdom, and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. At the end of the time, when the king had commanded that they should be brought in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. And the king spoke with them, and among all of them none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Therefore they stood before the king. And in every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were in all his kingdom" (Daniel 1:17-20).

"Teach me good judgment and knowledge, for I believe in your commandments" (Psalm 119:66).
